

Privacy or 'Fair Processing' Notice for members of the school staff at New End Primary School

Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the school uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about individuals we employ, or otherwise engage, to work at our school.

We, New End Primary School, are the 'data controller' for the purposes of data protection law. Our data protection officer is Andrew Maughan who can be contacted at:

SchoolDPO@camden.gov.uk.

1) The personal data we hold

- a. We process data relating to those we employ, or otherwise engage, to work at our school. Personal data that we may collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) about you includes, but is not restricted to:
 - i. Contact details
 - ii. Date of birth, marital status and gender
 - iii. Next of kin and emergency contact numbers
 - iv. Salary, annual leave, pension and benefits information
 - v. Bank account details, payroll records, National Insurance number and tax status information
 - vi. Recruitment information, including copies of right to work documentation, references and other information included in a CV or cover letter or as part of the application process

- vii. Qualifications and employment records, including work history, job titles, working hours, training records and professional memberships
 - viii. Performance information
 - ix. Outcomes of any disciplinary and/or grievance procedures
 - x. Absence data
 - xi. Copy of driving license
 - xii. Photographs
 - xiii. Data about your use of the school's information and communications system
- b. We may also collect, store and use information about you that falls into "special categories" of more sensitive personal data. This includes information about (where applicable):
- i. Race, ethnicity, religious beliefs, sexual orientation and political opinions
 - ii. Trade union membership
 - iii. Health, including any medical conditions, and sickness records

2) Why we use this data

- a. The purpose of processing this data is to help us run the school, including to:
- i. Enable you to be paid correctly and in a timely manner
 - ii. Facilitate safe recruitment, as part of our safeguarding obligations towards pupils
 - iii. Support effective performance management and ensure you receive³ appropriate training and personal development opportunities
 - iv. Inform our recruitment and retention policies
 - v. Allow better financial modelling and planning
 - vi. Enable ethnicity and disability monitoring
- b. This is not an exhaustive list and is provided to illustrate that the data we hold on you is used responsibly and in such a way as to support you in achieving your designated role in the school.

3) Our lawful basis for using this data

- a. We only collect and use personal information about you when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we use it where we need to:
 - i. Fulfil a contract we have entered into with you
 - ii. Comply with a legal obligation
 - iii. Carry out a task in the public interest
- b. Less commonly, we may also use personal information about you where:
 - i. You have given us consent to use it in a certain way
 - ii. We need to protect your vital interests (or someone else's interests)
- c. Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent, and explain how you go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.
- d. Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal information about you overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify the school's use of your data.

4) Collecting this information

- a. While the majority of information we collect from you is mandatory, there is some information that you can choose whether or not to provide to us.
- b. Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you must provide this information (and if so, what the possible consequences are of not complying), or whether you have a choice.

5) How we store this data

- a. We create and maintain an employment file for each staff member. The information contained in this file is kept secure and is only used for purposes directly relevant to your employment.

- b. Once your employment with us has ended, we will retain this file and delete the information in it in accordance with our record retention schedule/records management policy based on the Information and Records Management Society's toolkit for schools which will be available to download from the both the GDPR and the policy page of the school website.

6) Data sharing

- a. We do not share information about you with any third party without your consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.
- b. Where it is legally required, or necessary (and it complies with data protection law) we may share personal information about you with:
 - i. Our local authority – to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it, such as safeguarding concerns and exclusions
 - ii. The Department for Education – meet our legal obligations to, for example, supply data for national census collection and pupil attainment collation (SATs)
 - iii. The pupil's family and representatives – to confirm attendance at school, to ensure we have emergency contact details, to inform families about a child's progress or any concerns relating to that progress
 - iv. Educators and examining bodies – the ensure fair assessment of children progress, attainment and achievement
 - v. Our regulator [Ofsted] – to ensure that the information is available for them to make a fair and factual assessment of school standards
 - vi. Suppliers and service providers – to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for
 - vii. Financial organisations – to ensure best value and the most efficient use of school resources
 - viii. Central and local government – to fulfil statutory obligations
 - ix. Our auditors – to ensure the school meets all its statutory obligations
 - x. Health authorities

- xi. Health and social welfare organisations – to fulfill our obligation to work to achieve improvements in children's health and well-being
- xii. Professional advisers and consultants – to support staff development and training and wider school improvement
- xiii. Police forces, courts, tribunals – to meet our legal obligation to ensure children's safety
- xiv. Professional bodies – to enable them to support school improvement initiatives

7) Transferring data internationally

- a. Where we transfer personal data to a country or territory outside the European Economic Area, we will do so in accordance with data protection law.

8) Your rights

a. How to access personal information we hold about you

- i. Individuals have a right to make a 'subject access request' to gain access to personal information that the school holds about them
- ii. If you make a subject access request, and if we do hold information about you, we will:
 - 1. Give you a description of it
 - 2. Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for
 - 3. Explain where we got it from, if not from you
 - 4. Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with
 - 5. Let you know whether any automated decision-making is being applied to the data, and any consequences of this
 - 6. Give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form

- iii. You may also have the right for your personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.
- iv. If you would like to make a request, please contact our data protection officer.

b. Your other rights regarding your data

- i. Under data protection law, individuals have certain rights regarding how their personal data is used and kept safe. You have the right to:
 - 1. Object to the use of your personal data if it would cause, or is causing, damage or distress
 - 2. Prevent your data being used to send direct marketing
 - 3. Object to the use of your personal data for decisions being taken by automated means (by a computer or machine, rather than by a person)
 - 4. In certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data corrected, deleted or destroyed, or restrict processing
 - 5. Claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the data protection regulations
- ii. To exercise any of these rights, please contact our headteacher Karyn Ray in the first instance.

9) Complaints

- a. We take any complaints about our collection and use of personal information very seriously.
- b. If you think that our collection or use of personal information is unfair, misleading or inappropriate, or have any other concern about our data processing, please raise this with us in the first instance.
- c. To make a complaint, please contact our data protection officer.
- d. Alternatively, you can make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office:
 - i. Report a concern online at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>

ii. Call 0303 123 1113

iii. Or write to: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF

e. Contact us: if you have any questions, concerns or would like more information about anything mentioned in this privacy notice, please contact Nick Holt the School Business Manager who will attempts to answer your query or pass your query on to the data protection officer.
